

Contents

Contributors xv

Part 1 The cancer challenge

- 1 Cancer control and the burden of cancer 3
Mark Elwood, Simon Sutcliffe

Part 2 Prevention and screening

- 2 Active cancer prevention 23
Graham Colditz, Courtney Beers
- 3 Achieving behavioural changes in individuals and populations 43
David Hill Helen Dixon
- 4 Early diagnosis and screening in cancer control 63
Anthony Miller

Part 3 Applying new knowledge

- 5 Integrating science with service in cancer control closing the gap between discovery and delivery 81
Jon Kerner
- 6 The impact of immunization on cancer control
the example of HPV vaccination 101
Ann Burchell, Eduardo Franco

Part 4 Optimizing patient care

- 7 Improving cancer services the approach taken in England 131
Mike Richards
- 8 Population based cancer control and the role of guidelines –
towards a systems approach 153
George P Browman Melissa Brouwers Béatrice Fervers Carol Sawka
- 9 The optimal provision of cancer treatment services 169
Michael Barton Geoff Delaney
- 10 Managing the costs of new therapies the challenge of funding new drugs 185
Susan E O Reilly Jaya Venkatesh
- 11 Community supports for people affected by cancer 205
Michael Jefford
- 12 Improving quality of life 221
Shirley Bush Eduardo Bruera

- 13 Shifting the paradigm from complementary and alternative medicine (CAM) to integrative oncology 239
Anne Leis, Stephen Sagar Marja Verhoef Lynda Balneaves Dugald Seely Doreen Oneschuk
- 14 Patient centred supportive and palliative care 259
Genevieve Thompson Carla Ens, Harvey Chochinov

Part 5 Integrated cancer control

- 15 From cancer care to cancer control organization of population based cancer control systems 279
Simon Sutcliffe
- 16 Getting the public involved in cancer control – doing something besides worrying 297
Patricia Kelly William Friedman Tara Addis Mark Elwood, Claire Neal Mark Sarnier Simon Sutcliffe
- 17 Organizational structures for cancer control 317
Lorraine Caron
- 18 Evaluating the outcomes of cancer control 341
Andrea Micheli Paolo Baili Roberta Ciampichini, Arduino Verdecchia
- 19 Priority setting methods and cancer control 363
Stuart Peacock Lindsay Hedden Craig Mitton
- 20 Ethics and the idea of cancer control 381
Lisa Schwartz
- 21 Integrating cancer control with control of other non communicable diseases 399
Robert Burton Jerzy Leowski Jr Maximilian de Courten
- 22 Cancer control in developing countries 417
Ian Magrath
- 23 Strengthening the global community for cancer control 445
Simon Sutcliffe, Mark Elwood

Index 457